Morning:

There is no doubting Melbourne's title as a breakfast mecca, and Docklands is no exception. Sitting on the river at Yarra's Edge you'll find The Espressionist; the perfect setting and food to fuel a busy day ahead.

From there, it's time for something a little different. A mix between squash and tennis, Padel is the world's fastest growing sport, and with picturesque courts under heritage-listed Shed 21 next to the Bolte Bridge, it's hard to imagine a better backdrop to soak in the fun.

While you walk back along the Yarra River download the Docklands Walking Tours app where you'll explore maritime history and the rich tapestry of Docklands through heritage and art trails (more information on page 28).

Afternoon:

With a few kilometres already under your belt, it's time to leave land and take to Docklands' crown jewel: its harbour. There are many ways to explore Docklands' waterways, whether it's a self-guided boat, chartered vessel or even a kayak, you'll enjoy Melbourne from a truly unique perspective.

Lunchtime presents a challenging choice. Our picks: a Katsu Sando at Ilza Japanese Café, the famous paninis of Saluministi or a wholesome bowl at Collins Square's Meals With Impact, a social enterprise creating employment, food relief and connection.

If you're ready for some retail therapy, you have the choice of Spencer Outlet, The District Docklands or DFO South Wharf. With more than 200 stores between them, you're sure to find what you're after.

Night:

There's no doubting Docklands' home of entertainment and fun sits at The District Docklands. Ice-skate at O'Brien Icehouse, catch a blockbuster movie at Hoyts, get swept away in a kaleidoscopic circus of cocktails, arcade and ticket games at Archie Brothers Cirque Electric or spin your world upside-down at House Down Under.

Locals have voted Cargo their favourite place to eat in 2023, followed by Tap 831 and Platform 28 (both on Bourke St), then the unique offerings at Horn and Hoof and Butchers Prime. We've given you a list, it's now on you to choose.

Finish your night enjoying a cocktail at Sunset House, the cocktail bar sitting atop Melbourne Marriot Docklands overlooking Docklands.

Now, rest.
